

Institution Faculty of Medicine

Higher Institute of Speech and Language Therapy (ISO)

Major Speech and Language Therapy

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE

Diploma : 187 USD/credit*

• Bachelor's Degree in Speech and Language Therapy

240 credits

Requirements for admission

- Lebanese Baccalaureate (all sections) or an equivalence accepted by the Ministry of Education and Higher Education
- Level A or B on the English Aptitude Test organized by USJ or a score between 60 and 69 on the Internet-Based TOEFL or 515 and 549 on the Paper-Based TOEFL
- Application study + oral test, or
Score of 17/20 on the Lebanese or French Baccalaureate : cf. page 11

Periods of admission

- Early, regular : application study + oral test

OPPORTUNITIES

A speech and language therapist is a health professional who provides a range of services including : prevention, carers support and trainings, assessment and life-changing treatment for children, adolescents, adults and the elderly who have impairments in the area of communication, oral and written language, speech, voice and swallowing. A speech and language therapist can practice in a private clinical setting, in nurseary or school settings, in specialized centers, in hospitals, especially in neurology, pediatrics and ENT services.

Location

Campus of Innovation and Sports, Block B - 4th Floor

Website

www.iso.usj.edu.lb

Email

iso@usj.edu.lb

Phone

961 (1) 421640

* Tuition fees 2020-2021