MINDFULNESS CONFERENCE

Easy to say but difficult to do, especially when you live in a country that goes through one crisis to another. However, the Mindfulness helps those who wish not to succumb to psychic exhaustion and inner collapse, to manage daily stress, to achieve moral well-being and to get out of the negative spiral in which we are facing.

The Lebanese Mindfulness Association (LMA) in collaboration with the Professional Training Center of Saint Joseph University of Beirut (CFP) launched the first Mindfulness Conference on October 23rd, 2021, from 9:00am to 2:00pm (Beirut time) at Gulbenkian Theatre Beirut- Campus of Social Sciences.

The keynote speaker of the conference was Professor Rebecca Crane, Head of “Center for Mindfulness Research and Practice, Bangor University, UK. Prof. Crane inaugurated the event and shared with the audience the UK experience in establishing and developing mindfulness.

Within the scheduled program, Pr. Fadi El Hage, Delegate of the Rector of USJ for Professional Development and the Director of the Professional Training Center of USJ delivered a speech under the title of “Importance of Lifelong Learning for mental health”.

It is important to mention that during the conference, the Mindfulness Club and the Mindfulness Training Program at USJ were launched and the registrations have begun!

Professional Training Center
Université Saint-Joseph de Beyrouth

Negotiation skills are important both in the workplace as well as in personal life. In the workplace, they help you achieve long-term career success, boost productivity and reduce workplace conflicts. In your personal life, they boost your creative and reasoning abilities, make it more difficult for people to take advantage of you and make you a better strategist.

Given the importance of negotiation skills, the Professional Training Center of Saint Joseph University of Beirut and Scotwork Middle East launched the “Negotiation roadmap to a better deal” webinar on Tuesday October 26, 2021, at 3pm (Beirut time) on Zoom platform. During the webinar, The CFP with the collaboration of Scotwork Middle east launched the Scotwork course “Scotwork Virtual Advancing Negotiation Skills (VANS)” which has started in November 29 and ended in December 2, 2021.
