About the Friends of the USJ Choir

The USJ Choir relies on funds from private philanthropists, corporate sponsors and organizations to continue offering unforgettable concerts to the public! By becoming a Friend of USJ Choir, not only are you helping to guarantee a sustainable future for our ensemble, but you are making a direct contribution to the breadth, depth, and quality of our artistic output for the decades to come.

Your generosity will allow the USJ Choir to:

- Produce top-caliber performances.
- Secure a sustainable future for decades to come.
- Hire musicians and special instruments.
- Purchase and rent necessary equipment.
- Nurture young Lebanese talents and develop the musicians of the future through educational programs and masterclasses.
- Safeguard the cultural and musical scene in Lebanon.
- Collaborate with world-class Lebanese and international soloists.
- Perform in the best halls locally and internationally.

To join the membership scheme of the Friends of USJ Choir, you can select an annual subscription.

ABOUT US

Founded in 2015 by Rector Fr. Salim Daccache, s.j., the USJ Choir now assembles over eighty singers from different faiths, nationalities, and backgrounds—the true representation of the tolerant, inclusive, and diverse Lebanon. Led by Yasmina Sabbah—the only female orchestra conductor in the Middle East—the choir has been increasingly recognized for its bold innovative repertoires focusing on crossover music, and nuanced musical interpretations of both Classical and Modern music. As a result, in only a few years, the Choir has gained its deserved place next to the leading choirs in the Middle East and aims to contribute to raising Lebanese choral music to international standards.

9 years of hard work and unwavering determination

We stand by Lebanese Talent
