

Course Syllabus

1. Course number and name: 015ABC4L5 Voluntary and Social Work
2. Credits and contact hours: 2 ECTS credits – 1x1:15 course hours
3. Instructor’s or course coordinator’s name: Sima Antabli
4. Text book
  - a. other supplemental materials:
Professor textbook and course material

5. Specific course information
  - a. catalog description :

An active course proposed and provided by the Lebanese School of social work at Saint Joseph University to all its students registered at any specialization to have the opportunity to get engaged in various volunteer activities and sensitizes them to the importance of their involvement in community life.

- b. prerequisites : None
  - c. Required/Elective/Selected Elective: Elective
6. Specific goals for the course
  - a. specific outcomes of instruction:
    - Become familiar with different socio-cultural and volunteering context
    - Be aware of the problems facing their environment.
    - Plan, implement and evaluate a small project (one-off action).
    - Build their capacity to work with a multidisciplinary team

- b. KPIs addressed by the course

KPI	d1
Covered	x
Assessed	x
Give Feedback	x

7. Topics and approximate lecture hours :
  - Course introduction : (1 Lecture)
  - Identify the students’ expectations regarding the course, group functioning, etc. (1 Lecture)

- Presentation of the course: objectives, contents, methods, requirements, validation, research...(1 Lecture)
- Creation of the first step of the volunteer CV(1 Lecture)
- Introduction to Volunteering (1 lecture)
- Introduction to Civic Engagement (1 lecture)
- Project management steps (2 lecture)
- Learning objectives for the management of activities (2 Lecture)
- Design social projects in partnership with an NGO (2 lecture)
- Project implementation (2 lecture)
- Report presentation (1 lecture)