Following the symbol of faith (the Credo), we will expose the Christian faith according to the Trinitarian structure: God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit and all the secondary concepts of the faith related to the main articles of this structure. Thus we can discover the importance of every article in the architecture of the Christian faith.

First, we will start by outlining the concept of faith and theology, and then enter the comprehension of the Triune God. This approach will enable us to see the consequences of these basic concepts on our vision of Life and the major challenges on different levels: ethical, ecological, political, economic....
