

Invitation to the Round Table

PAST THE PANDEMIC AND BEYOND: THE WORK PLACE OF THE FUTURE

 Tuesday, October 12, 2021 at 6 pm (Beirut Time)

 Live on Zoom Platform.

Organized by

The Faculty of Arts and Humanities (Master of Human Resources) and The Professional Training Center (CFP) of USJ

Welcome speech

Mrs. Mona Hardane, Head of the Master program in Leadership and Human Resources Management.

Importance of Lifelong Learning in professional development

Pr. Fadi El Hage, Delegate of the Rector of USJ and Director of the Professional Training Center.

The Genomics of the Workplace: Observation and Experience

Mr. Diya Obeid, the CEO and founder of JobDiva, a SAAS-based recruitment, CRM, and accounting solution delivered to the staffing industry.

Working Remotely a new value-added impact for Innovation in MSIs

Mr. Khaled Tayara, holds an MBA from ESCP-EAP and a Masters in European Business Law from the Sorbonne (Paris) and a Masters in Corporate Law from USJ (Beirut). An expert human resources management and development consultant, with 25 years of experience across multiple sectors from telecom to FMCG, pharmaceuticals, technology, luxury, communications and hospitality.

Benefits of the post pandemic employee

Mrs. Farah Saade, Graduated from USJ with a master's degree in HRM, Mrs. Saade gained experience in the HR field by working in local, regional and multinational companies for the past 10 years. Experienced in talent acquisition, talent management, career development, employee engagement. She is also CIPD certified.

Register here

For more information:
cfp@usj.edu.lb - 70/ 119341

 cfp.usj  Centre de Formation Professionnelle-USJ

 Centre de Formation Professionnelle-USJ  @CfpUsj