RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Why choose Saint Joseph University of Beirut for your university studies?

7 good reasons

- 1) In these times of economic and political crisis, there is a fact that our students, their parents and our alumni recognize: Saint Joseph University of Beirut is still standing to continue its mission to serve the education of the Lebanese Youth, without discrimination or preference, except for being able to start one's studies in one of the USJ institutions. The system of studies is based on ECTS (European Credit System Transfer); so, it is flexible and adapts to your desire.
- 2) It is the University of Solidarity with those who need a scholarship to study. Our motto is clear: no student will be turned away for financial reasons. More than 50 % of our students benefit from scholarships: social and academic scholarships such as Magis, Excellence, Merit and Sports scholarships. USJ stands in solidarity with its students and their families, so that the student learns to be in solidarity with others.
- 3) It is the University of Academic Excellence. You can be sure that your degree will be your passport to employment. Our annual alumni surveys show that 86 % of our graduates get their first job within eight months of graduation. With the accreditation granted by the German Agency ACQUIN for the whole University and ABET for engineering studies, the European Agency for Dental Surgery for the Faculty of Dentistry (FMD), the World Physiotherapy Organization, the ongoing accreditations AACBS for Business, the World Medicine Organization for the Faculty of Medicine and others as with the American Agency WSCUC, all the trainings at USJ are recognized in Lebanon and internationally.
- 4) At USJ, you benefit from a personalized support. The University has been listening to you to help you on your way since you first met our orientation specialists at the Student Information and Orientation Office (SIO). This has been part of our pedagogy for nearly a century and a half, as the University was founded in 1875 by the Jesuit Fathers. You are not a number among many, but a person with value.
- 5) You want to reach out to the international world in many fields? At USJ, you belong to a community as large as the world. You can do mobility semesters in several countries, you can take advantage of 49 international co-diploma programs that continue despite the crisis.
- 6) You can count on a large community of more than 100,000 graduates of the University, spread across Lebanon and the world. Solidarity, ease of employment, citizenship, and attachment to Lebanon are the keywords of the University and the Federation of Alumni Associations (check Alumnusj.org website).
- 7) At USJ, you learn how to live together as a nation in the image of a pluralistic Lebanon, respecting the diversity of opinions and convictions. It is a successful experience. Be one of those who build the Lebanon of brotherhood. If you want to get involved in sports, join cultural, social, artistic and scientific clubs, you will be welcomed into the real world of student life.

Ahlan Wa Sahlan bil USJ on the march for its 150 years!

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear students and parents, dear all,

First of all, thank you for showing interest in discovering the booklet of English Programs at Saint Joseph University of Beirut, a document that will help you learn more about the English majors offered at USJ, the admission requirements, the different possibilities of financial aid and scholarships...

Carefully prepared by the Student Information and Orientation Office (SIO), this booklet is an opportunity to find the major you are passionate about. Remember that finding the right major for you is, primarily, a journey of self-discovery.

While on this journey, you must bear in mind that choosing the "right major" is also the outcome of a well-informed candidate, and that the chemistry between a candidate and a major differs from one person to another. Also know that it is never too late to change your path and be open to other majors in order to lead a life and a career that suit you best!

We are always by your side to listen to you, guide you and help you choose the right major for you.

For any help in the decision-making process, do not hesitate to check our virtual orientation website (www.usj.edu.lb/e-doors) or contact the SIO for a personalized and free orientation session.

Hoping to meet you soon at USJ,

Good luck!
