

PSYCHOMOTOR THERAPY

Round Table Discussion

IN-CLASS SUPPORT

- How can teachers detect, support, and guide students through learning difficulties?
- How does the psychomotor therapist intervene in a class setting?
- When to refer for a psychomotor assessment?

Tania Hachem Samarani

- Trilingual Psychomotor Therapist with extensive professional experience
- Lecturer at the Institute of Psychomotor Therapy (IPM) - Saint Joseph University of Beirut.
- 13 years of experience with patients having several disabilities and pathologies
- Currently working at OPENMINDS Psychiatry, Counselling & Neuroscience Centre in Dubai

Content:

- 1- Introduction to Psychomotor Therapy.
- 2- Psychomotor intervention in a class setting.
- 3- Learning Difficulties: early signals and symptoms observed at every school level (Nursery to Grade 5), fields of intervention.
- 4- In-class screening tools and recommendations.
- 5- Referral for a psychomotor assessment.

Disciplinary Field: Education

Target Audience:

- First-Cycle Teachers:
 - Early Childhood Education / Preschool (ages 3–5)
 - Elementary Cycle (ages 6–10).
- Multidisciplinary team

 Main language: English

 Dates: Monday, February 27, 2023 – 3PM-6PM

 Location: Saint Joseph University Dubai
Dubai International Academic City, Block 11, Ground Floor.

For more information on the round table and to register, kindly send an email to cdsp.ipm@usj.edu.lb
Or call +971-4-4380630

 ipm.usj.edu.lb |  @ipm.usj |  @fm.ipm