

Changing Writing Classes from Frustrating to Exciting

Campus of Humanities (CSH)

Date : 16 February 2019 (8 am - 1 pm)

40 $ / participant (1 day | 5 hours)

Language of the training : English

Number of participants : 50

Registration : <http://www.usj.edu.lb/fc/dipl.htm?cursus=2280>

For more information, please contact :

Hala Ghosn : +961-1-421 000 ext.5511

hala.ghosn@usj.edu.lb

Learning outcomes :

- Revise process writing by reading texts, rearranging ideas and writing paragraphs.
- Focus on the three main stages of writing: Invention Stage, Composing Stage and Revision Stage.
- Work on generating ideas using various techniques such as brainstorming, freewriting, graphic organizers, and audio-video techniques.
- Develop the composing stage based on organization of ideas and drafting.
- Revise the drafts by focusing on the content, editing, and proofreading.

Target audience : Alumni, Professionals, Teachers

Trainer :

Therese Shaaban Khatib is an AUB graduate with an MA in TEFL (Teaching English as a Foreign Language) acquired in 2001. She also holds a BA in English Language and a Teaching Diploma in TEFL (1988). She has been teaching English for 30 years. She started in Abu Dhabi (UAE) as an English teacher and the head of the English Department in AL Manhal Canadian School (1989-1996), then as an English teacher and coordinator in Beirut International School (Bshamoun), and an English instructor at AUB and USJ. She is the Head of the English Department in the University of Science and Arts in Lebanon (USAL). She is pursuing her PhD studies in Education at USJ.

