ARTICLE 1 - PREFACE

1.1. Context and Institution Mission

The core mission of Saint-Joseph University of Beirut (“Institution”) is [Mission]:

1.1.1 The Institution’s mission, vision, and values are defined in its Charter. It revolves around two main axes: teaching and research, but there also exists a third axis of civic engagement.

In that sense, the Institution is a teaching and research institution. It promotes excellence and aims to mold its students into the best of the country and region, thereby opening wide the doors of opportunity for them. Not only that, but it also seeks to promote dialogue through biculturalism and plurilingualism, all while remaining a safe haven for reflection and character building.

1.1.2 The Institution is committed to ensuring that Intellectual Property (IP) emanating from its Research activities is used in support of the objectives set out in its [Charter and Statutes annexed to the present policy], and in accordance with its legal obligations, for the benefit of the Institution, the Creators and, most importantly, society-at-large.

1.2. Purpose of the IP Policy:

The present IP policy has been adapted from WIPO Intellectual Property Policy templates for Universities and Institution

1.2.1. Promotion of IP utilization. The intent of the present IP Policy is to facilitate the widespread use of, through various modalities of access to, the Institution’s IP.

1.2.2. IP management. The IP Policy seeks to set the framework for the translation of the IP arising from the Institution’s Research into products, services and processes. It encourages Staff Members, Students and Visitors to become Creators and to identify IP with potential commercial value. It also establishes clear rules and procedures for the management and Commercialization of such IP generated at the Institution in respect with the article 9 below.

1.2.3. Balance of interests. The IP Policy seeks to ensure the legal protection, where applicable; effective management and Commercialization of the Institution’s IP; while at the same time not impeding with the traditions of education and scholarship, academic freedom, open and timely publications, Institution sovereignty, and the Institution’s mission serving the public interest.

1.3. Overall Principles

The Institution operates under the following overall principles:

1.3.1. Responsible Commercialization. Where IP arises that has commercial potential as a result of Research, the Institution intends to make such IP available in a form that will most effectively promote its development and use for economic and social benefit throughout the commercial entity responsible of its commercialization as stated in article 9 below.

1.3.2. Incentives. The Institution wishes to recognize and reward Staff Members, Students and Visitors whose IP generates a demonstrable socio- and/or economic impact.

1.3.3. Local development. The Institution encourages Research that responds to the local, regional and national needs. In its efforts to Commercialize Institution IP, the Institution shall seek to optimize the economic and societal benefits for industry from Saint-Joseph University of Beirut in Lebanon and in Dubai.

ARTICLE 2 - DEFINITIONS

Without prejudice to any applicable laws, in this IP Policy the definitions set out below shall apply:

Appointment. A formal agreement for a Visitor at the Institution, which is a prerequisite to participate in or conduct Research, scholarship, creative work, or teaching at the Institution.

Author. Any person to whom this Policy is applicable, who individually or jointly with others makes a design, a mark or copyrightable work and who meets the criteria for authorship under the IP laws of Lebanon.

Background IP. Any pre-existing IP created before the execution of any Research Project, or prior to a Creator becoming subject to this IP Policy, by virtue of Appointment in the case of a Visitor, employment contract in the case of a Staff Member, or registration in the case of a Student.

Commercialization. Any form of utilisation of IP intended to generate value, which may be in the form of a marketable product, process or service, commercial returns, or other benefit to society. Commercialize is similarly defined.

Commercialization Entity. A company that has access to the IP of the Institution, through any one or more of the available Commercialization modes, to produce new products, processes or services which is “Société Recherche et Développement SARL”.

Conflict of Commitment (COC). Any situation in which an individual Staff Member’s or Visitor’s primary professional loyalty is not to the Institution because the time devoted to outside activities adversely affects their capacity to meet their responsibilities as set out in their employment contract of Appointment, respectively.

Conflict of Interest (COI). Any situation in which real or perceived interests of an individual Staff Member, Visitor or Student may run counter to the interests of the Institution or negatively affect their employment or duties.

Course Materials. All materials used in, or in connection with, and for the purpose of, teaching an education course through the provision of lectures, tutorials, seminars, workshops, field or laboratory classes, assessments, practicum and other teaching activities conducted by the Institution; and all IP in such materials.

Creator. Any person to whom this Policy is applicable, who creates, conceives, reduces to practice, authors, or otherwise makes a substantive intellectual contribution to the creation of IP and who meets the definition of ‘inventor’, ‘author’ or ‘breeder’ as generally implied in the IP laws of Lebanon.

Enabler. Any assistants, technicians, and other individuals who have indirectly contributed to the creation of IP by Creators - and as such may not be listed themselves as an author or inventor in terms of statutory IPRs - mainly through the execution of standard tasks or following through on specific instructions, but without whose practical contribution the Commercialization would not have been possible.

Genetic Resources (GRs). “Genetic material of actual or potential value.”¹ Genetic material is defined as “any material of plant, animal, microbial or other origin containing functional units of heredity”.² Some GRs are linked to traditional knowledge (TK) through their use and conservation by indigenous peoples and local communities, often over generations, and through their widespread use in modern scientific Research. Examples include medicinal plants, agricultural crops and animal breeds.

ARTICLE 5 - OWNERSHIP OF IP AND RIGHTS OF USE

5.1. IP Created by Staff Members

- 5.1.1 Institution ownership. The Institution owns all IP created by a Staff Member:
- a. in the course and scope of his/her employment; or
 - b. making Substantial Use of the Institution’s resources.
- 5.1.2 Staff Member ownership. Staff Members will own/co-own the IP they have created when such IP:
- a. is outside the course and scope of their employment and without Substantial Use of the Institution’s resources;
 - b. vests in Scholarly Works (see Article 5.5);

5.1.4. Appointment of Staff Members at another Institution. It is the responsibility of each Staff Member that holds an honorary or other academic or research appointment at another institution (Host Institution) to notify in writing the Institution of its appointment by another Institution and to bring to the attention of the Host Institution, including its IPMO, his/her obligations in terms of this Policy, prior to the tenure at the Host Institution. To the extent that the Host Institution's IP Policy makes a claim on IP created by the Staff Member pursuant to such appointment, the Staff Member shall ensure that the Host Institution negotiates a suitable IP arrangement with the Institution.

5.2. IP Created by Students

5.2.1. Student ownership. IP created by a Student in the course of study at the Institution (including theses, dissertations and other Scholarly Works) will be owned by the Student. This is in contrast to IP created by a Student in a Research Project, as per Article 5.2.3 below.

5.2.2. Theses or dissertations.
The Student must submit his/her final thesis or dissertation to the Institutional repository.

5.2.3. Institution ownership. IP emanating from a Student's Research Project shall be owned by the Institution in the following circumstances:

- a. if the IP is created by making Substantial Use of the Institution's resources (excluding supervision); or
- b. if the Research carried out by the Student forms part of the Institution's Research Projects.

5.2.4. IP emanating from Research Contracts.⁴ The terms of the Research Contract shall regulate the ownership of IP created by a Student in the course of such Research Contract, as set out in Article 8.

5.2.5. Institution ownership responsibilities.⁵ If the Institution is the owner of IP created by a Student, in terms of Article 5.2.3 or Article 5.2.4, and hence created in terms of a Research Project or Research Contract, respectively, the Institution shall:

- a. provide the Student with an explanation of the reasons for the assignment of IP rights to the Institution;
- b. advise the Student to seek independent advice regarding the assignment;
- c. obtain a deed of assignment from the Student for all IPRs emanating from the Student's Research Contract or Research Project, where relevant, in return for revenue sharing as provided for in Article 10; and
- d. withdraw the Student from the Research Project or Research Contract if a Student elects not to assign the relevant IPRs to the Institution.

5.2.6. Bursaries/scholarships. An external party that grants a bursary or scholarship to a Student may elect to own the IP created by that Student in the course of his/her study at the Institution provided the Student and the Institution have consented to the assignment of IP ownership in writing and such consent is not contrary to any applicable local or national law.

⁵ See also Article 3.4.2 of this Policy.

- 5.2.7. Student Owned IP. IPMO may, upon agreement, provide Commercialization services to Students for their IP.

In the absence of an assignment of the IP to the Institution, the Students and IPMO may agree on the specific Commercialization services required], sharing of Commercialization revenues accruing to the Students].

5.3. IP Created by Visitors

- 5.3.1. Institution ownership. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Institution and the Visitor's home institution prior to the tenure at the Institution, Visitors are required to assign to the Institution any IP:

- a. created in the course and scope of their Appointment at the Institution; or
- b. created by making Substantial Use of the Institution's resources.

- 5.3.2. Institution IP. On departure from the Institution, a Visitor must sign and submit to IPMO an IP release and Disclosure form disclosing any IP created, as per Article 5.3.1, whilst at the Institution.

5.4. Special Rules for Course Materials

- 5.4.1. Institution ownership. The Institution will own the IP in Course Materials created by a Staff Member or a Visitor, with the exclusion of Course Material that is created from or for Open Educational Resources, in accordance with Article 5.7.1.

- 5.4.2. Licensed by the Institution. The Institution grants the Creators of Course Materials a royalty-free, non-exclusive licence to use the Course Materials created by them for teaching and Research purposes at the Institution.

5.5. Special Rules for Scholarly Works

- 5.5.1. Publication. The Institution recognises and endorses the rights of Staff Members, Students and Visitors to publish their Scholarly Works, provided that any Scholarly Work which may disclose any possible Institutional IP shall first be cleared in writing by IPMO after having an opportunity to protect such Institutional IP according to Article 8.

- 5.5.2. Institutional repository. Staff Members, Students and Visitors should endeavour to obtain publishers' permission to include published Scholarly Works in the Institutional repository [whether as a published edition or in pre-publication form].

- 5.5.3. Licensed to the Institution. Staff Members, Students⁶ and Visitors shall grant to the Institution a non-exclusive, royalty free license to use their Scholarly Works for the Institution's [Research and teaching purposes.

5.6. Moral Rights

⁶ This obligation can be enforced against Students through a provision in the Student registration form in terms of which the licence is granted to the Institution.

- 5.6.1. Recognition. The Institution undertakes to respect and protect the moral rights which the Lebanese law number 75 dated 13/4/1999 confers on Authors of copyright works
- 5.6.2. Rights granted. The Institution acknowledges that moral rights vest in Authors of copyright works irrespective of the copyright ownership thereof and include:
- a. the right of attribution of authorship in respect of the copyright works;
 - b. the right not to have authorship of the copyright works falsely attributed; and
 - c. the right of integrity of authorship in respect of the copyright works.
- 5.6.3. No waiver. The Institution acknowledges that the Staff Members, Students or Visitors cannot waive their moral rights as a condition of employment, enrolment, Appointment or funding.

5.7. Public Domain

- 5.7.1. Public Domain. Institution IP forms part of the Public Domain in the following if a Research Contract provides that the Research results be placed into the Public Domain;
- 5.7.2. Release into the public domain. After consent of the Creator (s), the Institution can release IP into the Public Domain in the following circumstances:
- a. where it is deemed to be in the public interest;
 - b. if the IP has low commercial or other development potential and low prospects of fostering the development of new products or services; or
 - c. if deemed necessary by the Institution.

ARTICLE 6 – PUBLICATION, NON-DISCLOSURE AND TRADE SECRETS

- 6.1. Right of publication. The Institution encourages and supports the right of Creators to decide if and when to publish their Research results, in accordance with Article 5.5 above.
- 6.2. Non-disclosure for IP protection. In conjunction with the right of publication, Creators should be aware that premature Public Disclosure may result in loss of IP protection rights Therefore, they are strongly encouraged to make all reasonable efforts to identify any protectable IP as early as possible, according to Article 8, and shall consult IPMO before making any Public Disclosure of potential Institution IP [
- 6.3. Trade Secrets. The Institution may designate certain confidential information as a Trade Secret, owned by the Institution. In that event, all Creators will be obligated to maintain secrecy of the Trade Secret and to follow the direction for management of the Trade Secret by IPMO.

ARTICLE 7 – RESEARCH CONTRACTS

- 7.1. Authority. Staff Members, Students and Visitors shall not have the right to enter into a Research Contract with external parties on behalf of the Institution unless they are priory authorized to do so in writing by an official representative of the Institution.
- 7.2. Research Contract Policy. All Research Contracts must be executed and performed in compliance with the Institution’s Research Contract
- 7.3. Due diligence. Staff Members, Students and Visitors acting for and on behalf of the Institution shall exercise all due diligence and consult IPMO when negotiating and signing contracts that may affect the Institution’s IPRs.
- 7.4. Ownership and rights to use. Subject to any provisions in law to the contrary, ownership and rights to use shall be agreed upon with the external entity
- 7.5. Government rules. Research Contracts shall comply with applicable law and/or Government regulations and/or rules, which may be applicable to Research undertaken by the Institution, in particular, as far as it relates to the ownership of IP resulting from such Research
- 7.6. Approval. Proposed Research Contract and other legal statements concerning the Institution’s IPRs shall comply with the provisions of this Policy. Any variance from this Policy must be approved by the Senior Responsible Officer
- 7.7. Basic Principles. The IP clauses in all Research Contracts shall the governed by the following basic principles:
 - 7.7.1. Concluded from the outset. A Research Contract must be executed in writing and signed by the Institution and the external party(ies)/sponsor(s) prior to the commencement of any Research Project and, as appropriate and without limitation, must contain terms relating to ownership, management and use of IP arising from the Research Project as well as any Background IP.
 - 7.7.2. Background IP. All Institution Background IP must be properly recorded and declared prior to the commencement of a Research Contract and belongs to the Institution. Similarly, Background IP of the external party/sponsor, belongs to such party or sponsor. Use of such Background IP requires express written permission.
 - 7.7.3. Foreground IP (IP arising from the Research Contract). IP generated pursuant to a Research Contract by Staff Members, Students or Visitors shall be governed in terms of the above provisions relating to IP generated by these parties. The general rule is that such IP shall be owned by the Institution.
 - 7.7.4. Co-owned Foreground IP.
 - a. Terms for co-ownership. Co-ownership of IP generated pursuant to a Research Contract shall be in accordance with the Lebanese legislative provisions,

- b. Costs for protecting and maintaining co-owned IP. The costs for protecting and maintaining any IPRs shall be shared between the Institution and the external party (ies) /sponsor(s) [as mutually agreed contractually.
- 7.7.5. Serendipitous IP⁷. Any IP created during the course of the Research Contract which falls outside of scope of the Research Contract shall be owned by the Institution, unless agreed contractually otherwise in the Research Contract.
- 7.7.6. Right of first refusal to the IP. The Research Contract may include provisions giving the external party (ies)/sponsors, a right of first refusal to Commercialize the IP emanating from the Research Contract, through a license or joint venture arrangement or assignment. In this case the Institution perceives a percentage on the profit of the company falling under this IP.
- 7.7.7. Publication delay. It is the strict policy of the Institution to allow Creators freedom to publish their work. However, the Institution acknowledges that delays in publication for the purpose of initiating statutory protection of the IP is often necessary. In this regard, the Institution will agree, on a case-by-case basis, to a contractual delay in publication by Creators. Such delay will not exceed 120 calendar days from the date IPMO is notified of the intent to publish, unless authorized by the Senior Responsible Officer
- 7.7.8. Use of the IP for Research and teaching. In instances, where the Institution IP is licensed exclusively or assigned as part of the Research Contract, all efforts should be made to secure a royalty-free license for use of the IP for on-going Research and teaching purposes.
- 7.8. Exceptions to the Policy. In certain cases, it may be necessary and/or beneficial to the Institution to enter into a Research Contract that contains exceptions to the provisions of this Policy. Any such exceptions require prior, written approval from the Senior Responsible Officer.

ARTICLE 8 – DETERMINATIONS BY THE IPMO

8.1. Responsibility to Disclose IP

- 8.1.1. Recording. Creators shall keep appropriate records of their Research in accordance with the Institution’s applicable policy procedures and make reasonable efforts to ensure that only those individuals within the Institution who have a need to have access to such records for the performance of their duties are granted such access.
- 8.1.2. IP Disclosure. Where a Creator identifies potential IP resulting from his/her Research, he/she shall disclose such potential IP to IPMO promptly with no delay whatsoever by means of an IP Disclosure Form.

⁷ Results are serendipitous when research that was originally funded for one purpose turns out to be useful for another purpose.

- 8.1.3. Complete disclosure. Creators must provide to IPMO such full, complete and accurate information as IPMO may reasonably require to enable it to sufficiently assess the technical and related features and functions, ownership, commercial potential and IP protection that might be applicable to such IP. Upon complete disclosure, the IP Disclosure will be registered and assigned a reference number and IPMO will share this reference number with the Creators to signify that the IP Disclosure has been formally received by the Institution.

8.2. Creatorship and Ownership

- 8.2.1. Creatorship. Creators shall, upon request, sign the appropriate legal documents provided by IPMO that attest to creatorship. Where there is more than one Creator, and there is a dispute as to the contribution to creatorship, IPMO shall in consultation with the Creators, assist in the determination of the percentage IP creatorship, failing which it shall be assumed that there was an equal undivided contribution.
- 8.2.2 Ownership. Once creatorship has been determined, the Creators shall be required to formally assign any right, title or interest they may have in that IP to the Institution in the form of a contract that specifies the rights that will accrue to the Creator(s) and the Institution and the obligations they will have to assist the Institution's commercialization entity with the Commercialization of that IP. Article 9.3 will apply.

8.3. Determination as to IP Protection and Commercialization

- 8.3.1. Evaluation and recommendation. IPMO will analyse the information disclosed in the IP Disclosure within 90 days of formal receipt. The analysis will include: whether or not the subject matter is protectable as IP; an assessment of economic viability or marketability; and determination of any rights of external parties, such as a funder or collaborator. After evaluation, IPMO will prepare a preliminary report with findings that enable the Institution to decide if it will proceed with IP protection and Commercialization. IPMO shall share the preliminary report with the Creator(s), and seek their input.
- 8.3.2. Decision to protect/Commercialize. The Institution will solely decide, as soon as reasonably practicable, whether or not it wishes to protect and/or Commercialize the IP. IPMO will use all reasonable efforts to notify the Creator(s) of the Institution's decision within 90 days of formal receipt of the IP Disclosure. IPMO will also decide in relation to the validity of any claim made by a Staff Member, a Visitor or a Student that they are the true Creator(s) of that IP and in relation to their rights under this Policy.
- 8.3.3. Institution's obligation to notify Creators of its decision. Within no more than 90 days IPMO will notify the Creator(s) of the decision of whether the Institution will or will not pursue IP protection and Commercialization of their IP Disclosure.

8.4. Institution Elects not to Protect /Commercialize the IP

- 8.4.1. IP abandoned or not Commercialized. The Institution reserves the right not to protect or Commercialize IP that it owns if after consultation with the Creators:

- a. it is not deemed to be in the best interest of the Institution; or
 - b. it is not deemed to be in the public interest.
- 8.4.2 Transfer of Ownership. In the event the Institution decides not to pursue IP protection and/or Commercialization, it will take steps to return said IPRs to the Creator(s), contingent on any other superseding contract rights of external party(ies)/sponsor(s).
- 8.4.3. Written notification. If the Institution is unable to or decides not to protect the Institution IP, it should notify the relevant Creator(s) of its decision in writing and in a timely⁸ manner.
- 8.4.4. No prejudice to IP protection. The Creator(s) should receive the written notification in a timely manner that enables the relevant Creator(s) to take any formal steps to ensure the protection of IP, should they so desire.
- 8.4.5. Assignment. If the Creator elects to take assignment of the IP, the Institution shall ensure that a deed of assignment is executed without delay.
- 8.4.6. Terms and conditions. If the Institution assigns IPRs to the Creator in terms of this Article 8.4.5, the assignment may be subject to one or more of the following terms and conditions:
- a. that upon Commercialization, the Institution be compensated for any expenditure it may have incurred in connection with the protection and/or Commercialization of such IP; and/or
 - b. that the Institution be granted a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to use the IP for Research and teaching purposes.

ARTICLE 9 - COMMERCIALIZATION OF IP

- 9.1. Determination of the Commercialization Strategy. Within 6 months of the notification of the decision to protect or Commercialise the IP under Article 8.3.2, the Institution and/or the commercialization entity will determine, with input from the Creators, the most appropriate Commercialization strategy.
- 9.2. Assistance to IPMO. Creators of IP which has been selected for IP protection and Commercialization by the Institution must provide IPMO with all reasonable support in the assessment, protection (including preventing premature disclosure and execution of any documents including deeds of assignment and deeds attesting to creatorship), and Commercialization of the IP.
- 9.3. Sovereignty and Cooperation. The Institution shall have the sole discretion regarding the Commercialization of IP owned by it. Notwithstanding, the Institution will ensure that reasonable efforts are made to keep the Creators informed and, where appropriate, involved in the Commercialization of the IP to which they contributed.
